Dear Attorney General:

I feel Microsoft should receive a much harsher penalty for their antitrust actions. The verdicts have been returned. But, the sentence is more a blessing in thinly veiled disguise.

If the feds are intimidated by Microsoft, I urge the state attorneys general not to be. If double jeopardy prevents further action on the antitrust case, I feel racketeering may be another avenue worth pursuing. This corporation is a criminal entity and must be punished.

Please continue your efforts against this actively growing monopoly. Feel free to contact me directly if you have any questions regarding my position on Microsoft and their business tactics.

Sincerely,
